

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1881.

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

Both trains were behind time yesterday.

Calvin Fisk sold twenty-three lots yesterday.

Property sold in twenty-four hours by Calvin Fisk, Optic Block.

Fitzgerald yesterday sold a residence and five lots for good prices.

The local bar makes quite a good showing in the District Court.

The new business building on Center street, is nearly ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Randles is improving the National Hotel in many material respects.

The interest in the walking match seems to grow as the walk progresses.

Pipes are being laid across the Plaza Park, and it will soon be illuminated by gas.

Wm. Morgan was not murdered by Masons. He was in court to-day in Las Vegas.

We lead the trade in real estate. Come and see if we don't. Calvin Fisk, Optic Block.

The brick walls of the college building and the car stable are growing a little each day.

Fitzgerald, the live real estate man has a number of heavy transfers to make in a day or two.

Why is the new Presbyterian church like a peninsula? Because it is almost surrounded by water.

Some of our saloon men are looking blue over prospective arraignments for violations of the gambling and Sunday laws.

Miss Matilda Vaur and two sisters of Mora, arrived yesterday in the city and will remain to assist at the concert for the new college.

That mischief-making acquia is full to overflowing, and the new Presbyterian church looks as if it had grown up in the center of a lake.

Fitzgerald, the live real estate man, has an elegant, well-finished and well furnished house and lot for sale at a bargain. Call and see him.

The street railway company are putting in a turn-table in front of their new stable to throw the cars on and off the track leading to the sheds.

Judge Prince bought three more town lots yesterday besides doing a hard day's work in directing the administration of law at the Court House.

A domestic tragedy in two acts was on the boards of Judge Steele's theatre yesterday. We forbear comment, because there were women in the row.

The Fair and Concert for the benefit of Las Vegas College will commence on the 15th inst. Every effort has been made to make it a successful entertainment.

The new building adjoining the San Miguel bank will be occupied as a millinery store by Mrs. J. B. Baker and her niece, Miss Ida Baker, as soon as completed.

Paulita Romero, daughter of Sheriff H. Romero, aged about ten years, died yesterday at 11 o'clock. The funeral will take place at Romeroville to-day at 2 o'clock.

J. J. Fitzgerald the live real estate man offers to buyers seeking investment a number of special bargains in both business and residence property; call and see him.

Rogers, charged with stealing four cases of canned goods from the train while in transit from this place to Morieta, was found guilty and sentenced to three months in jail.

In the case of the Territory vs. Pineda charged with resisting an officer, he was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and spend thirty days in the county jail.

Fitzgerald, the live real estate man, calls special attention to the valuable lots in Mrs. Judge Habbell's addition, opposite the postoffice. They will be sold at a great bargain.

It will be cause for hearty congratulation for all concerned when the trains get so again that we can get the mails at something like the accustomed hours and with some degree of regularity.

District Court is in full blast and we understand that several citizens have temporarily emigrated to the country beyond the hills, and we imagine their stay will be co-extensive with the duration of the term.

Three courts in session in town yesterday. The District Court, Judge Prince presiding; U. S. Court, Commissioner Sulzbacher on the bench, and the venerable Judge Steele adjudicating domestic difficulties on the East Side.

We have been selling property so fast lately that we are compelled to ask those having property for sale to call in at once and place the same on our books. It will be disposed of promptly. Calvin Fisk, Optic Block.

J. J. Fitzgerald, the live real estate man, says he has a house and lot on Main street, in one of the best neighborhoods in the city, elegantly finished and furnished. Will sell the whole thing from kitchen to parlor complete at a great bargain.

The ladies of the Baptist congregation will give an oyster supper this evening, the proceeds to be applied to the expense of the addition recently made to their building. They will provide good fresh oysters in a variety of styles at the low price of sixty cents for each person, and certainly at this price and for this purpose they should have a liberal patronage from our generous and oyster loving citizens.

The moon-eyed Mongolian who presides over the "suds" department at the Sumner House, had the misfortune to lose his pigtail at the hands of some mischievous boys a few days since. He looks much like the fox in the fable.

The Las Vegas postmaster removal scheme has collapsed. The move was uncalculated for, and the people of Las Vegas decided that Furlong was as good a man as they could get.—Trinidad News.

The Las Vegas GAZETTE of last Sunday, took a bold stand for fame, and came out with a half-sheet extra, and ended to the prominent advertising. Of course Jaffa Brothers took the lead in advertising, and occupied the upper half of a page.—Trinidad News.

W. G. Koogler, of the Las Vegas GAZETTE, was among the passengers who came in on last night's train. He stopped at the Grand Central. Mr. Koogler has been down to Albuquerque to see the show.—New Mexican.

A benefit for Billy Burton, the manager of Baen Hall, has been suggested by a number of persons for Saturday evening, the last night of the walking match. Billy has been indefatigable in securing entertainments and this would be a proper public recognition and encouragement for the future.

Some youngsters were amusing themselves on the East Side yesterday evening, at the expense of a large canine with a large stock of tinware tied onto his caudal appendage. We suggested that this thing might be kept up with profit until the last empty oyster can in town has followed at least one dog "over the hills and far away"—so far away that he can't find the way back. Go in, gamins, and have your fun; oyster cans are plenty and dogs likewise.

The feed loft of the new car stable will hold eighty tons of hay. There will be twenty stalls for horses, a tool room, office, sleeping rooms for the car men, and ear sheds all in the building.

J. W. Barney was up before Judge Steele yesterday, on the charge of assault, and was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars, and spend thirty days in the "bull pen." Mr. Barney appealed from his honor's decision to the District Court, in one case, and we learned that another warrant was out for his arrest yesterday evening, on the charge of disturbing the peace.

Matt. Beckers, the poor drunken painter who persuaded himself that Mooney swindled him out of valuable property at White Oaks, has come to grief. He was arrested on a charge of stealing cigars from M. Heise, and was up before the U. S. Commissioner for selling them without license.

The time is at hand now for the fall shearing of sheep and wagon trains come in every day freighted with wool from the backs of the tens of thousands of sheep upon the adjacent ranches. The Messrs. Garrard are shearing over twenty thousand head within a mile or two of town.

It is reported that an order has been promulgated requiring the removal of the Mesquero Indians from their reservation to the Jicarillas, and it is predicted that the attempt to enforce it will have the effect of re-enforcing Name's band by at least two hundred warriors from that tribe.

One of the newest and spiciest little papers that finds its way into our sanctum is the daily Republican, of Little Rock, Ark. It is usually brimful of items well and tastefully arranged and tersely told.

A private letter from a distinguished female eloquentist, one who ranks A No. 1, intimates that she will pay Las Vegas a visit some time during the winter, and afford entertainment to our citizens by some choice dramatic readings.

A number of the railroad people were in Court to-day, to testify in the case of Rogers charged with stealing some boxes of canned goods from a car in which they were being shipped, some time in August last.

A peculiar agreement was entered into by two members of a business house in Las Vegas; one agreed to do the work and the other to do the swearing on alternate days. The question is, which will get the big end of the bargain.

The new Presbyterian Church, on the East Side, will be dedicated next Sunday. Dr. Roberts, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, is expected to preach. Should he get here our citizens will be well paid for it if they turn out to hear him preach as he is a man of very marked ability.

Complaint was made yesterday before Louis Sulzbacher, United States Commissioner, against M. Beckers for violating the internal revenue laws, by selling cigars without license. The case was continued until Saturday.

PERSONAL.

W. D. Reinken, Ocate, is in town.

E. McGue, St. Louis, is doing Vegas.

Mrs. J. B. Baker returned from Denver yesterday.

Mr. F. O. Kihlberg returned from St. Louis yesterday.

Hon. H. L. Waldo, Santa Fe, came up yesterday morning.

Dr. R. H. Longwill, of Santa Fe, was in the city yesterday.

Joe Davis, Mineral Hill, is registered at the Sumner House.

Mr. A. Grzelachowski started yesterday for Puerto de Luna.

Drs. Epperson and Yantis are at Mineral Hill, on a hunting excursion.

Mr. Schmidt, of Schmidt & Reinken, Ocate, was in the city yesterday.

Father S. M. Ryss went to Albuquerque yesterday, to take charge of the American Catholics of that parish.

Fathers C. Persone and J. M. Montanari, of this city, went to El Paso yesterday to take charge of the parish there.

FOUND.

The place to buy real estate is of Calvin Fisk, Optic Block, East Las Vegas. He has more property and greater bargains than any other man in Las Vegas.

The Fair and Concert.

The Committee in charge of the Fair and Concert, for the benefit of the new building for Las Vegas college, has issued the following circular:

On yesterday, through the kindness of Col. Swallow, we were shown a private letter from Denver in which it is apparent that the people of Denver are fully alive to the importance of the effort being made to build a railroad from El Moro to this point, giving us direct communication with Denver over the D. & R. G. If the company will proceed with the work and show by a substantial subscription to the stock at home that they mean business, Denver capital will assist and the road built, and it is a great enterprise for this town to have the road and have it right away. It can be done and ought to be done. Let the members of the company report progress through the press that people may be advised. Let the Secretary furnish the press of the city with the minutes of their meetings, and what has been done, and what is proposed to be done, and what is wanted and what is not wanted. A matter of such general interest as the building of a railroad can't be placed before the people too clearly, and if men are at the head of the movement in whom the people repose confidence, there certainly can be no difficulty in getting the necessary funds and going to work.—Trinidad Times.

Dear friends: We respectfully call your attention to the following announcement. A grand fair will be held in Las Vegas College Hall, to raise funds for the new college. It will begin on the 15th and continue until the evening of the 18th of October. Every evening during the fair there will be a grand concert and entertainment for which the best musical and dramatic talent of Las Vegas has been engaged. No pains will be spared to make the occasion a successful and joyous one. All friends of Las Vegas and Las Vegas College are most cordially invited to attend, and as the price of ticket admitting to all the concerts is only one dollar, everybody can easily afford himself the pleasure of being present.

Yours respectfully,

Grand Concert and Fair Committee.

Linear P. Davis of the Silver Brick calls Hughes of the Albuquerque Journal all the hard names known to the vocabulary of abuse, and accuses him of maliciously circulating false statements in regard to him in the vicinity of his Davis-old home in Virginia.
